IMPORTANT CUSTOMER NOTICE

We are thrilled to announce that the Cafe at Urban Jungle will be able to provide both gluten and non-gluten containing dishes.

Our gluten-free customers are now lucky to have an incredible range of restaurants and cafes that offer dishes and meals to suit their dietary requirements, which means that we're able to diversify and provide an even wider selection of brunch, lunch and dinner options.

The kitchen is used for the preparation of both gluten and non-gluten products, although all procedures are followed to try to eliminate cross-contamination, we cannot guarantee that there will not be traces of gluten in our non-gluten products.

If you have any allergies or intolerances, please speak to the team before placing your order.
